DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 5-22 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims of U.S. Patent No. 6,935,224 in view of WO 01/73164. The claimed subject matter, excluding the tray ceramic layer, is an obvious variation of that disclosed in the US Patent. WO 01/73164 discloses that it is known in the art to provide a ceramic layer to a cooking surface to prevent food from sticking thereto.

Terminal Disclaimer

An attorney or agent, not of record, is not authorized to sign a terminal disclaimer in the capacity as an attorney or agent acting in a representative capacity as provided by 37 CFR 1.34 (a). See 37 CFR 1.321(b) and/or (c).

Therefor, the terminal disclaimer is not proper.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by WO 01/73164.

The prior art discloses that it is old and well known in the art to place a ceramic layer on a food support surface of a cooking vessel.

In regards to the use of the device in a bread maker, such is intended use only and provides no structural limitations to the claims.

In regards to claims 3 and 4, the method of forming the device is not germane to the issue of patentability of the device itself. Therefore, this limitation has not been given patentable weight.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 5-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over KR 2002-0057012 in view of WO 01/73164.

There is disclosed in the Korean reference a bread maker, comprising: an oven compartment 10; a pair of rotatable kneading drums 11, 13; a baking tray 15; a pair of dough-blocking members 17; a heater 18; a door 3; a rotation sensor 30, 41; a driving part 25; and a control part 70.

WO 01/73164, as discussed above, discloses the use of a ceramic layer on a food support surface of a cooking vessel.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to provide the tray of KR 2002-0057012 with a ceramic layer as disclosed in WO 01/73164, for the purpose of preventing damage to the tray by food sticking thereto.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 11 September 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that the prior art reference WO '164 fails to disclose the structural limitations of the claims. Applicant has failed to disclose what limitations are not met by the reference. It is the Examiner's opinion that the only structural limitations to be met are that of a tray or some sort of cooking vessel which has on it a ceramic layer. Such is disclosed in the WO '164 reference. Applicant argues that there is not provided proper motivation for combining the WO '164 reference with the Lee reference. The Examiner recognizes that references cannot be arbitrarily combined and that there must be some reason why one skilled in the art would be motivated to make the proposed combination of primary and secondary references. However, there is no requirement that a motivation to make the modification be expressly articulated. The test for combining references is what the combination of disclosures taken as a whole would suggest to one of ordinary skill in the art. References are evaluated by what they suggest to one versed in the art, rather than by their specific disclosures. In this case, the WO '164 references teaches that it is old and well known to use a ceramic layer on a cooking surface to prevent damage to the surface, during cooking usage, by a food item therein.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
